Frequently Asked Questions

1. How much does it cost to advertise? France4U is a very efficient low cost way of marketing your holiday vacation home property. The annual cost is only 75,00 euro and is much cheaper than advertising in a specialist magazine or in a newspaper. The advertisement will be there 24 hours a day 7 days a week and unlike magazine or newspaper advertising you have access to an international. We have thousands of visitors to the site each year.

2. How can I Pay? You can pay on line by credit card via Paypal. The amount equivalent to the advertising fee in local currency is debited to your Credit / bank debit card. Visa/Mastercard/Delta/Maestro/Solo. As soon as the payment has been made and the contents of the ad verified your details go live.

3. How will I be invoiced? Once we have received your payment we will send you an email attachment receipted Invoice

4. How long does the advertisement run for? The advertisement will run for twelve months and we will contact you towards the end of the period so it can be easily renewed. You can renew the advertisement again by credit card / bank card payment.

5. Will the advertisement go live as soon as I submit it? The content has to be checked by the website administrators, it will not go live immediately, particularly if it is submitted over a weekend, public holiday or during an evening. We will always post your advert as quickly as possible and email you a receipt. The period of advertising will start from when the advertisement goes live.

6. Will the advertisement be automatically renewed and my credit / debit bank card be debited? The advertisement will not be automatically renewed. We use Paypal to process the payments on line and the payment system we have on www.france4u.biz is not automated to take payments from you without your confirmation. You can renew the advertisement yourself by going into the owners section and supplying your credit / bank card details as you would have done with your initial advertisement payment.

7. How do I know if people are enquiring about my property? You will automatically be emailed enquiries. We keep your email address hidden on the site to prevent the address being added to organizations wanting to add you to spam mailing lists.

8. How many properties can I advertise? When you first register you can pay for as many as you like at a reduced rate the more properties you advertise the further reductions applied

9. I have my own website — can I have a live link? Yes, you can link from our site. Many people now have their own personal website for their property, a live hyperlink goes to your site

10. How many photos can I use and how do I load them? You can have ten photos displayed and change them whenever you like. You load them from your computer and they are automatically re-sized to fit the advertisement page, but you should reduce them to under 1 Mega pixels in order to ensure successful upload..

11. What price should I charge? Keep your property's price competitive. Check out the local competition. If your price is not competitive you will not receive the bookings. Remember to keep your prices updated on the site.

12. How do I change the details for my property once I have advertised it? You can change the prices, photos and availability details by using your exclusive login code. You should also keep availability details up to date and even if you are only half way through the year, keep the prices and availability details showing for at least the next year ahead.

13. I have never let my property before — can you give me some advice? In case you have never let your holiday property out before, we have produced some very useful Information for Property Owners.

Can I view my draft advertisement before I pay? No you are not able to do this. You can look at other advertisers advertisements to have an idea of what your ad will look like and once you have paid you can change it as often as you like, including replacing the six photos. We do suggest that you put details about the local area the property is located in as well as a good description of your property.

15. There are now many sites that I can use to market my property, Why should I choose www.france4u.biz? We have been in the local and internet Holiday Home marketing business since 2005 but can call on our family run business wealth of over 15 years in this market place as individual owners. We market internationally but most important of all is we live and work in the regions you are advertising in and can offer our personal hands on experience to help you successfully let your holiday home in Normandy & Brittany

16. Does France4U charge a booking fee to property owners or clients renting? We do not charge any booking fees. Some web sites offer free advertising then charge a booking fee of 10% or 15% of the rental. We do offer a full reservation management service option should you not have to facilitate the rental enquiries, correspondence, contracts deposits etc but our standalone advertising service on the website is 75,00 euro per annum.

17. When someone is looking for a property to rent how do they find my property? They will use the search criteria on the right hand menu or the Advanced Search facility. Also via our use of agent accounts with individual advertisements for your properties.

18. My property is not showing up in my region. You must make sure yourself as an advertiser it is located in the correct region. If it is not in the correct region / area it will not come up in local searches.

19. Additional FREE Advertising on certain sites France4U run a selection of complimentary websites driving traffic to the main site. Some of these sites will advertise a property FREE OF CHARGE, providing you have paid for the usual ad on www.france4u.biz.
